FILM NIGHT

"NOBODY'S CHILD"

An original film documentary by Don Gray about Canada's "Home Children" and the search by their descendents for roots. This is the story of the 100,000 abandoned and orphaned children who were swept up from the slums of Britain & Scotland, separated from families, then shipped by sea to Canada to work on farms and in homes, often as servants. Don Gray is an Echo Lake cottager, retired college teacher & award-winning film maker. There will be two showings of this film.

Wed. June 23 and Wed. Aug. 4th @ 7-9pm.

ONE of a KIND SCRAPBOOK

WORKSHOP

Don Gray will host a wonderful workshop on how to make a "cut & paste" scrapbook from scratch. Every memory & adventure is framed in its own unique way, from torn edges to real objects. Books will be supplied. Just bring some old photos, glue stick, ruler, scissors and your imagination
